

Password Notice to Estate Executor

Record of Password Key

In the event that I become incapacitated, I hereby authorize the Executor of my Estate to access my online accounts for the purpose of carrying out the directives as outlined in my Living Will, Last Will in Testament or if none shall have been created, as ordered by a court of law.

Shall it be known, I have chosen to use a secure password storage system known as, "The 5th Dimension Password Keeper" which is a secure password notebook that contains my login name, email and other account information along with an encrypted code "key" that is required to retrieve the password for each of my online accounts.

If a copy has not been included with this notice, you should find the password book at this general location:

The "Key" which is applied to each page/account in the password book is outlined below. I have indicated the password by numbering the cells in consecutive order, in the same manner as the password would be entered. (1= First character; 2=Second character; 3=Third character etc.)
